BOFIEND

Radio Tirana has announced the trial of fourteen spies apprehended in Albania. The broadcast advised, of the total number of spies tried, to British two were British, one Italian, 4 Yugoslavs, 3 Greek and 4 American. It was announced that ILLAZ TOPTANI, SEJIMDACI, MOHAMMED HOXHA and KASEM SHEHU were the spies infiltrated by the Americans. Toptani and Daci were members of the four-man BOFIEND Yellow One team dropped into the Kukes area in Northern Albania in November, 1950. The other two members of this team are understood to have fled to Yugoslavia. Shehu and Hoxha were members of the four-man Olive team dropped near Delvine in southern Albania in July, 1951. This team was reported to have been ambushed shortly after landing. Reports at the time indicated that two of its members committed suicide, Hoxha was captured and Shehu escaped. From the Radio Tirana broadcast it would appear that Shehu was also captured at a later date.
